WELCOME TO DRIGGS, ID

No matter what kind of outdoor enthusiast you are, there is something for everyone in Driggs, Idaho! From biking, hiking, stand up paddle boarding and fly-fishing during summertime, you'll never run out of things to do when visiting this incredible part of the country. So don't wait any longer—start planning your next trip today!

Our family has been building memories here for years, and we want to share a few of our favorite activities and some hidden gems that only the locals know about. From our family to yours, here are a few suggestions:

Grand Targhee Resort: Hike up the Mountain on Bannock Trail along the Teton ridgeline, and take the ski lift down. Take time to notice the beautiful views, the wildflowers, and the wildlife. The lift stops running at 5:00 pm so time your hike accordingly and be sure to buy lift tickets before you start your hike.

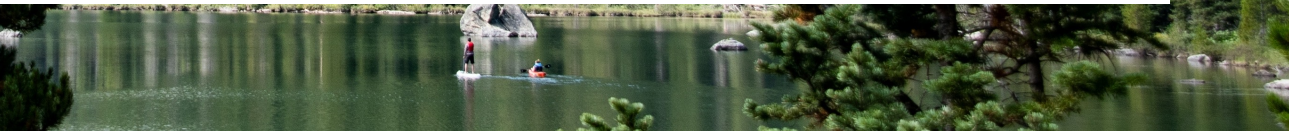

TETON AVIATION CENTER & WARBIRDS CAFÉ':

Take a scenic flight over the breathtaking Teton Mountain Range and explore from up above. The scenery is breath taking and the flight is sure to be one of your favorite experiences while visiting Driggs. After your flight, relax and enjoy a cocktail and some eats while watching the planes takeoff and land. There is also a mini museum inside that is full of history for the aviation enthusiast.
